In 1999 our brother, Master Sommelier Michael Bonaccorsi, set out to produce high quality Burgundian and Rhone styled wines from California's Central Coast. Mike was a visionary, perfectionist, and a collaborative member of the local winemaking community. Proseguire or "to carry on" is the driving spirit behind what we do today at Bonaccorsi Family Wine Company. Honored to have supported Mike and Jenne over the years, we are proud to continue the tradition.

We source our grapes from highly acclaimed vineyards located in the cool terrains of Santa Barbara County. Our winemaking practices build on and highlight the careful work of our growers and are environmentally sound and socially equitable.

After more than 3 decades what keeps Adam Tolmach of The Ojai Vineyard enthusiastic is his craftsmanship. He combines European sensibilities of balance and finesse with the exuberant fruit from coastal southern California vineyards. The key to producing special wine is in the care taken growing the grapes. By definition, great vineyards have something unique to say, and Adam makes it his endeavor to capture those characteristics in a clear and unadorned way.

Fe Ciega Vineyard, a small but luminary 9-acre planting in the western center of the Sta. Rita Hills, was purchased by The Ojai Vineyard’s Adam Tolmach at the beginning of 2021. This south-facing mesa above the Santa Ynez River is surrounded by iconic SRH vineyards (such as Sanford & Benedict),and provides Pinot Noir marked by profound depth of fruit balanced by ample structure and earthy intricacy.

Truchard Vineyards was established in 1974, when Tony and Jo Ann Truchard purchased 20 acres in the Los Carneros district of the Napa Valley. Through hard work and dedication, they transformed their property into a 400-acre estate. The vineyard site is a series of hills and valleys that contain a variety of soils: clay, shale, sandstone, volcanic rock, and ash. The unique combinations of terrain, geology, and marine-moderated temperatures provide unique grape growing conditions.

Winemaker William Knuttel has specialized in single vineyard wines for nearly four decades. William's daughter, Kate, and son, Sebastian, have recently joined in the creation of the Knuttel Family brand, producing hand-crafted, small production wines of excellent quality and value. Winemaker William Knuttel has produced his reserve-style Tentadora Malbec, an Argentina project, for over a decade, and Zinfinity, an old vine Zin blend, for nearly two decades.
